6. No signs, noise makers, glass vases, tripods or monopods are allowed in the building.
7. Each team is allowed to use the large cast rooms on the west end for final preparation, and restroom facilities. Please try to use the restrooms in these areas instead of the lobby restrooms, it helps on traffic control. DO NOT LEAVE ANYTHING OF VALUE IN THE DRESSING ROOMS. WE CANNOT BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR LOST OR STOLEN PERSONAL PROPERTY.
8. Participants must sit in the end zone area of the arena instead of the side areas.
9. When your squad is ready to warm-up for the competition, you will be directed to the warm up area to prepare for the competition. The manager in the warm-up room will direct squads to the next stage of the warm up. Please follow the schedule EXACTLY; timing is everything in running this competition smoothly. We appreciate your cooperation.

Teams will be provided individual times in the warm up rooms before their scheduled performance (schedule below). After your preparation is complete, you will enter the competition floor through the tunnel. You will exit the competition floor through the same tunnel. Squads from different classifications will face the opposite directions during the competition.

We will be running two classifications in the first session; three classifications in the second session and two classifications in the final sessions simultaneously. Class 2A and 3A will perform in the first session, Classes 4A and Large and Small Co-Ed in the middle session and Class 5A and 6A will be the final session. Please pay close attention to the schedules.

10. COACHES, MAKE SURE YOUR TEAM IS IN THE WARM UP AREA AND READY TO GO AT THE TIME LISTED ON THE SCHEDULE. A time schedule is provided in this posting, please look it over and be in place to enter the warm up area. Remember, this is an approximate schedule, judges may take longer than planned, or other delays may make a difference in the scheduled time.
11. A full practice mat area will be provided in the warm up areas as well as the practice times available right before your performance time. There will be a tumbling strip mat available that each squad is assigned 6 minutes prior to their floor mat practice time. (Please refer to warm-up times included.)
