Individual Camp Definition

An individual camp is an instructional event for a particular activity, at which instruction is focused on individual skills and techniques rather than organized team play.

Team Camp Definition

A team camp is an instructional event for a particular sport involving team members from at least three schools participating as a team during instruction, scrimmages, and/or games. All school team members must be enrolled at the school for which they participate during the team camp.

1. Any session of any summer athletic training camp involving student athletes in grades 7-12, cannot be held before the school year concludes for the participant's school district.
2. In Cross Country, Fall Baseball, Fast-Pitch Softball and Volleyball, no session of team camp may be held before the school year concludes for the participant's school district or after the beginning of the season (July 15). All other camps, with the exception of football, may not be held after the first full week of August.
3. No football camps (individual or team) will be allowed after July 15 using OSSAA member school facilities or sponsored by OSSAA member school football coaches. Football teams are limited to one team camp.
3. No session of any summer training camp will be approved for more than two consecutive weeks.
4. An individual camp fee shall be charged and shall be paid by the student athlete or his/her parents.
5. No awards other than trophies, medals, plaques, etc., shall be offered or given to student athletes. T-shirts may be given as long as the T-shirt cost is included in the camp fee.
6. Upon request, the summer training camp director shall submit to the Activities Association office a roster of those student athletes in attendance at the respective camp.
7. Only inter-camp practice sessions are permitted.
