

Speech/Debate Protest for 2019-2020

At a December tournament, a protest was filed against a student in an DD round. The protest claimed that one of the actors “removed her shoes and leaned on a desk during the performance”. The tournament manager investigated and found there was a violation of the rule, and the students were disqualified from the tournament.